

Be going to + infinitive is used to talk about our intentions, even if they are some way in the future.

- I'm going to study law when I finish school.
- We're going to Hawaii for our holidays next summer.

Notice that last sentence - it is not common to say "going to go to. We normally drop the go to and just say going to.

Be going to + infinitive is also used to speak about the future when we have already got some evidence that something is certain or likely to happen.

- She's going to have a baby (I can see that she is pregnant)
- It's going to rain (I can see the dark storm clouds)

Write the correct sentences under the pictures

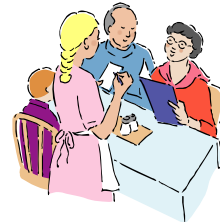

- a. He is going to sing
- b. She is going to swim

- c. They are going to have lunch
- d. She is going to play basketball

1. ....

2. ....

3. ....

4. ....

Put the words in order

IS GOING

SHE

DANCE

TO

MATHEW

TO

LUNCH

GOING

IS

HAVE

GOING

SARAH

TO

HOMEWORK

DO

HER

IS