

What is Your Greatest Weakness?

- PAULA: When I'm working on a project, I don't want just to meet deadlines. I prefer to complete the project well ahead of schedule.
- DEAN: Being organized wasn't my strongest point, but I implemented a time management system that really helped my organization skills.
- KRIS: I like to make sure that my work is perfect, so I tend to spend a little too much time checking it. However, I've come to a good balance by setting up a system to ensure everything is done correctly the first time.
- ANDREA: I used to wait until the last minute to set appointments for the coming week, but I realized that scheduling in advance makes much more sense.
- ALYSSON: I would say that I can be too much of a perfectionist in my work. Sometimes, I spend more time than necessary on a task, or take on tasks personally that could easily be delegated to someone else. Although I've never missed a deadline, it is still an effort for me to know when to move on to the next task, and to be confident when assigning others work.
- BRAD: I've learned to make my perfectionism work to my advantage at work. I am excellent at meeting deadlines, and with my attention to detail, I know my work is correct.
- ALEX: I used to like to work on just one project before starting on another, but I've learned to work on many projects at the same time, and I think it allows me to be more creative and effective in each one.
