

EMILIO ON ENGLISH

- Hello Emilio, welcome to Mansion Ingles. Can you tell me Emilio, how long have you been studying English?

- Well...I've been studying English from when I was _____ years old, but there...there was a great gap until I went back to studying English again when I was _____. I took some classes again, and from this time I've been studying by myself.

- I see, and how have you managed to learn by yourself? What systems have you used?

- Mmm..I don't really know...I like... reading a lot, in fact it's very difficult to...find people that can speak with me, because my life..is..erm...it's not easy to find _____, so I try to read and watch English TV and things like that.

- Uh-huh. Have you taken any formal courses?

- Oh yes, yes, as I mentioned before, I took a short three-month course studying English in an _____.

- It must have been very difficult learning by yourself so many years.

-Yes, that's true. In the _____ I was a little bit lost because everything seemed very difficult. There were many..many stages in my learning. But well, I am very interested in the English language. I find it quite interesting for me and, well I like languages in general.

- Uh-huh, and what do you do to keep in touch with English, to keep in contact with the language?

- Well, first of all I live with my ears wide open, and I try to pay _____ to every piece of news I hear in English, and....every sentence I see in newspapers, or I hear in a terrace or walking in the street, and I try to watch English TV programmes as often as possible, or watch DVD's or something...this kind..well, this is my method.

- I see, and how do you learn vocabulary, Emilio?

- Vocabulary, in fact, for me is curiosity of life. Er...I..I always want to..to know..er.. the way some words..er.. are said in another language, so it's curiosity. I like to read I think reading is the _____ for this..this way to..to achieve vocabulary. When I find a new expression I try to picture this new word, and I go to the _____ and look it up...or..and I try to remember it. And I write it and look at it several times, because sometimes you need to go to the dictionary several times, not only once.

- I see, and finally Emilio, do you have an advice for people who are studying with Mansion Ingles?

- Well, my _____ is... be constant, very keen on English and look... for subjects that you are really interested in. And not to stop! Er..not to yield, Sometimes it's due to the topics, not..not the English in itself, so you have to find your own subjects you're interested in, the subject that you are really interested. This is my advice.

- That's very _____. Thank you very much for your _____.

-Thank you to you.
