

A large, black-outlined Christmas ornament shape. At the top, there is a loop for a string and a small rectangular cap with a scalloped edge. The main body of the ornament is a large circle containing ten horizontal lines for writing.

A large five-pointed star outline with a black border. Inside the star, there are horizontal lines for writing. The top point of the star contains three lines, the middle section contains five lines, and the bottom section contains five lines.

